THE YEAR REVIEWED

SUMMARY OF THE IMPORTANT EVENTS OF 1901.

Year Witnesses the Deaths of Queen Victoria and President McKinley—Many Other Notables Pass Away—Disasters, Fires, Accidents, Strikes, Etc.

The year 1901, firstborn of the new century, is made memorable by the deaths of two of the best loved rulers of the world as ever known. In its first month Victoria, England's good queen, breathed her last quietly and peacefully at one of her royal abodes. The forcible taking of President William McKinley by the bullet of the misguided anarchist youth, Colquhoun, in September, is in harsh contrast with her serene passing, and in a sad commentary upon the laxity of our democracy, which favors the intimate contact of the chief executive with the general public and fails to provide adequate means for his physical protection.

TRAGEDY ON A TRAIN

Inoffensive Passenger Shot and Killed by Four Men—All Now in Jail.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 2.—Four white men killed J. M. Rhea, an inoffensive passenger on a train of the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley branch of the Illinois Central Railroad, at an early hour this morning near LeLand, Miss., cut the locomotive from the train and forced the engineer to run to Cleveland, Miss. All four men were arrested. One is in jail at LeLand, and three are looked up at Shelby.

The four men, who had been drinking, boarded the northbound train at LeLand at 3 A. M., to return to Shelby. Rhea, who is an engineer, was on his way to Tutwiler to take out a locomotive there, and was sleeping on a seat in the sleeper. The four men came down the aisle and the foremost one ran into Rhea's legs, which were extended out into the aisle. Rhea was awakened and a quarrel ensued, during which one of the four men told him that they could not all stay in the same car and that he would have to get out.

Rhea remarked that, in order to prevent trouble he would have to do as they told him. Thereupon he started out of the car. He had just reached the door when the men opened fire upon him and he fell.

ADMIRAL CASEY SAILS.

He Will Probably Change His Flag to the Iowans on Reaching Peru.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The navy department has been informed of the departure yesterday from Anapulo, Mexico, of Rear Admiral Silas Casey, commanding the North Pacific squadron, aboard his flagship, the Wisconsin, bound for Callao, Peru. By the time the Wisconsin arrives at the latter port it is expected that the battle ship Iowa will be ready to emerge from the dock at Talcahuano, Chile, and at the navy department it is thought probable that Admiral Casey will transfer his flag back to the Iowa, from which vessel it formerly flew. This state of affairs will leave the two largest battle ships of the Pacific squadron cruising in the waters off the coast of Chile, Argentina and Peru, so that in case the threatened hostilities between Chile and Argentina materialize American and Argentine materialize American interests in that quarter would be well looked after.
